Shattered

The Haunted

Stare at my reflection, a face to me shown unknown. Cleanse with perfection, no man shall stop the seeds I've sown.

You see me crawl, but that's not true. I'm just a step away from you.

I feel my energy rising. Shatter me who shatter dares...

Don't trust your eyesight, it will deceive your every glance at me. I feel no sorrow, kill... like there's no tomorrow.

You see me crawl, but that's not true. I'm just a step away from you.

I feel my energy rising. No way to keep this fury controlled.

My hand shakes with anger. Stare unto me as I shatter your soul..

Shattered..

Goats head, Daed eyes. No reconcile.

Submit to none. I am divine.

Shattered, Shattered...

You call me evil. I'm but the instrument of the Lord. You call it senseless, I see a need to cleanse this putrid world.

You see me crawl, but that's not true. I'm just a step away from you.

I feel my energy rising. No way to keep this fury controlled.

My hand shakes with anger, Your life... Shattered.
