

Oh My Dear

The Head and the Heart

Oh my dear
Have you forgotten all the good years
Once or twice, that's all we get in this life
You can put it on the shelf
You can watch the dust collect

But oh dear, oh dear
Don't let 'em die
Don't let 'em die
Don't let 'em die

Well, honey, I'll drink your poison
Well, honey, I'll take the blows when it gets rough
If that's what it takes to be one in the same
If that's what it takes to be one in the same
If that's what it takes to be one in the same
Oh my dear, with you my dear
