

Shake

The Head and the Heart

Well the ink in my pen ran dry
Long before your smile
And pages have always been blank
Like the trees in the wild

But the wind, yes, the wind keeps
Pushing you to me
Time in time out
I know when it's time to leave

And the memories we made
Will never be lost, no
And the look on your face
We both knew the cost

But the wind, yes, the wind keeps howling

I put in the pictures, you put in the time
You put all those memories so deep inside my mind
Now the wind, yes, the wind keeps
Pushing you to me
Time in time out
I know when it's time to leave

And the memories we made
Will never be lost, no
And the look on your face
We both knew the cost

But the wind, yes, the wind keeps howling

Even if it was a mistake
I can't forget your face
Even if it was just a day
You won't forget the one
Who's making you shake

Even if it was a mistake
I can't forget your face
Even if it was just a day
You won't forget the man
Who's making you shake

Who's making you shake
You shake
Ahhhhh, making you shake
You shake
Ahhhhh, making you shake
