

Dignity

The Heavy

She's trying to tell this kid about herself
She ain't dissin him
So I'm gonna have to say something
Yo, he looks so good to me now you don't
Just trying to make a fool of me, he's turning around, so long

And I know a guy who knows it
I know it
He's trying to fuck with my dignity
Well, I love you
I can't trust you
You're always fucking with my dignity
Always fucking with my dignity

I make you dance like I never left in this song
I just hope that you dance that way for longer

Cause I don't care who knows it
I know it
You're trying to fuck with my dignity
And I love you
But can't trust you
You're always fucking with my dignity

Always fucking with my dignity
Always fucking with my dignity

Cause I don't care who knows it
I know it
You're trying to fuck with my dignity
And I love you
But can't trust you
You're always fucking with my dignity
You're always fucking with my dignity

Always fucking with my dignity
Always fucking with my dignity
Always fucking with my
Always fucking with my
