

Easier

The Heavy

Listen to me now, hey

I was just sitting here
Looking for a place to go
Looking for somebody to call my home
I was just, making out that you were heavier
I didn't even try to care

I've got to make it easier on myself
Make it easier, oh
Make it easier on my self
Got to make it, oh yeah

I was just sitting here, waiting for a place to go
Nobody looking like they want to call mine home

But I know I got you baby, oh now
Believe I got you lady, am I wrong?
Tell me baby am I wrong now?
You got to tell me, am I wrong?
Please tell me, am I wrong now?
Because:

I've got to make it easier on myself, now
Make it easier, oh
Make it easier on my self, now
Got to make it, oh yeah
