Easier

The Heavy

Listen to me now, hey

I was just sitting here Looking for a place to go Looking for somebody to call my home I was just, making out that you were heavier I didn't even try to care

I've got to make it easier on myself Make it easier, oh Make it easier on my self Got to make it, oh yeah

I was just sitting here, waiting for a place to go Nobody looking like they want to call mine home

But I know I got you baby, oh now Believe I got you lady, am I wrong? Tell me baby am I wrong now? You got to tell me, am I wrong? Please tell me, am I wrong now? Because:

I've got to make it easier on myself, now Make it easier, oh Make it easier on my self,now Got to make it, oh yeah
