I'm on the run

I'll die fighting, Inside me there's a fire that burns (whoa) My life begins And ends without the faith that we learn Save me from the darkest places Save me from myself I'm a loaded gun An only son But I'm nobody's hero I've come undone I'm on the run Yeah, I'm nobody's hero Nobody's hero To heal, your scars I will give you everything I can (whoa) This war, of hearts We will rise again and take a stand I can lead you to salvation Yet I am just a man I'm a loaded gun, An only son, But I'm nobody's hero I've come undone I'm on the run Yeah, I'm nobody's hero Nobody's hero (nobody's hero) This martyr's cross gets too heavy to exist And we feel the loss of the lives I left to risk (C'mon) I'm a loaded gun An only son But I'm nobody's hero I've come undone I'm on the run Yeah, I'm nobody's hero I'm a loaded gun An only son And I'm nobody's hero I've come undone

Yeah, I'm nobody's hero Nobody's hero

(nobody's hero)
