

Darling Darling

The Hellacopters

Darling darling darling can't you see darling darling what you mean to me forgive me for that stupid man I've been ooh darling darling darling stay with me so sweet loving passion hate time has passed but it's not too late bitter broken twisted mind time have treated you so unkind well I admit you have been forsaken well I'm sorry I've been mistaken it's possible to mend a broken heart

oh darling darling darling stay with me

darling darling darling stay with me
