

Hurtin Time

The Hellacopters

Hurtin' time
Hurtin' time

You put the hurt on me, babe
I put the hurt right back
That's a lot of hurt and we're heading
Down on a nowhere track

My eye for your eye
Your tooth for my tooth
Leaves the whole world blind without teeth
And, baby, that's the hurtin' truth

It's hurtin time
Well, you know it
Hurtin' time

I apologize now
And wait for you to respond
Will you say you're sorry
Or will the hurtin' times keep going on

It's hurtin' time
Well, you know it's
Hurtin' time

A blow for a blow
The biter bit
Face right down
In the hurtin' grit

You know it
Hurtin' time

You put the hurt on me, babe
I put the hurt right back
That's a lot of hurt and we're heading
Down on a nowhere track, you know

It's hurtin' time
Well, you know it
Hurtin' time

Hurtin' time
Hurtin' time
