

Looking At Me

The Hellacopters

Hit it

Well, do you know what to do
When the world come crashin' down at your chances
But when it's fallin' apart
Do you know what to do

Well, are you gonna cry
And moan about what's turned sour
It's all about you in the end
So go get a clue

Now is right now
Tomorrow will never be
Now I'm givin' you insight now
So get a life and stop looking at me

And figure out what to do, yeah
And what the scheme and the plan is
When sweet today get sour tomorrow
Will you pull it through, pull it through

Now is right now
Tomorrow will never be
Now I'm givin' you insight now
So get a life and stop looking at me

And figure out what to do
What to do
What to do
Well, do you know what to do
