

You Are Nothin'

The Hellacopters

You are nothin'
I'm for real
You see I'm rockin'
'Cause the devil's got a deal

Ain't got no time left
But I've got Shiva on my right
And you're in deep shit baby
While I'm in the limelight

Yeah, action rockin' man born and bred
Well, I've got asteroids bouncin' 'round in my head
We're talkin' cliches baby, I know it's true
And you just can't stand, I'm not one bit like you

And I keep on runnin'
You're standin' still
Yeah, I move my ass
To get kicks and dirt cheap thrills

And our lips are movin'
But I can't hear you say
Yeah, you hit the ditch
And I hit the highway, help

Yeah, action rockin' man born and bred
And I've got asteroids bouncin' 'round in my head
We're talkin' cliches baby, I know it's true
And you just can't stand, I'm not one bit like you

You are nothin', getting nowhere
And you are nothin', getting nowhere
And you are nothin', getting nowhere
And you got nothing at all
And you are nothin', getting nowhere
You got nothing, and you not nothing at all
Come on

Yeah, action rockin' man born and bred
And I've got asteroids bouncin' 'round in my head
We're talkin' cliches baby, I know it's true
And you just can't stand, I'm not one bit like you

You are nothin', getting nowhere
Yeah, you are nothin', getting nowhere
You are nothin', getting nowhere
You can't stand, I'm not one bit like you
