

Scandalous

The Higher

It was a lesson in indiscretion
And it's weighing on my mind
I'm pretty sure this happens all the time
All my desperation became my depression
Nowhere to go, nowhere to hide
Now that I know this happens all the time

I should've seen it in the way that you act
You're scandalous
Behind my back
So scandalous
You're running around, all over town
I can't handle it

You're a dime I can't afford to lose
Cause I'm better off without you

Another victim
You're so vindictive
One more cadaver lying cold
Now that I'm sure this happens all the time

I should've seen it in the way that you act
You're scandalous
Behind my back
So scandalous
You're running around, all over town
I can't handle it
Licking your lips
You're scandalous
Ignorant bliss
So scandalous
You're making a scene, the gun isn't clean
I can't handle it

You're a dime I can't afford to lose
Cause I'm better off without you

You're just a nightlight hitting my blindside
Shining on more than you deserve
Now that I know this won't happen anymore
Oh no

The way that you act
You're scandalous
Behind my back
So scandalous
You're running around, all over town
I can't handle it
Licking your lips
You're scandalous
Ignorant bliss
So scandalous
You're making a scene, the gun isn't clean
I can't handle it

You're scandalous, so scandalous

Yeah, yeah, yeah, oh
You're scandalous, so scandalous
I can't handle it
