

Born To Cry

The Hives

Well I'd like to tell you something, all about the girl I know bad

I wish today the world, my friends, would stop being sad Theres so much cheat-arounders, I feel that I could die and I know.. that I was born to cry!

Well if I ever tell you all about the things I have done
I can't remember having even one day of fun
I don't know what I'm doing, if I do it's a lie
and I know.. that I was born to cry!

So I cry oh oh yeah I cry oh oh I said I'll cry! I said ill cry

Well every girl I ever loved, always stepped down on my feet
I thought I had a friend once, but he kicked out my teeth
The thing I like and wanna have, I can't even buy and I know that I was born to cry!
I know some day, and maybe soon, the master will call and when he does, I'll tell you something, I won't cry at all Until it happens folks, I guess I'll sail without tide
and I know that I was born to cry!

So I cry oh oh yeah, I'll cry, I said I'll cry, oh oh oh yeah I said that I was gonna cry so I cry.

I know some day, and maybe soon, the master will call
and when he does, I'll tell you something, I won't cry at all!
Until it happens folks, I'll sail without tide
and I know that I was born to cry!
