

Jealous Sun

The Horrors

Everywhere you go
And everywhere I follow,
Take your love and take your tomorrows
Because your love isn't enough.

Don't let it all slide away
Under the jealous sun now.
Don't let yourself slide away
Under jealous sun together.

And the sun is high
Every time I'm hidden for too long.
In this world, you take what you want,
Cause in this world you are alone.

Don't let it all slide away
Under the jealous sun now.
Don't let yourself slide away
Under jealous sun together.

Don't let it all slide away
Under the jealous sun now.
Don't let yourself slide away
Under jealous sun together.
