

Mine and Yours

The Horrors

I've been thinking about the one I love
While she sleeps through a storm.
Do you see what I see in your eyes?
Do you see me at all?

How can you seem to ignore what is there?
How can you stay and endure the regret?

I've been waiting for the days that follow
When our silences fall.
Do you see what I see in your eyes?
Though you seem to ignore.

How can you seem to ignore what is there?
How can you stay and endure the regret?

I've been thinking about the one I love
An eye in the storm,
I could stay here, I could be blind.
How far will it go?
Mine and yours,
Yours and mine.
