

Sleepwalk

The Horrors

Hey now what did you tell her,
Sleepwalking across town.
She's living deep in a spell,
Now you're not around.
I wish you could see how she is now,
Thinking all about you.
Her world is broken in two,
Don't know what to do.

I'm falling, far as I can go
And you, falling, nowhere left to go.

Still living deep in the spell now,
He moved back across town.
He's been trying to keep you alive,
One day at a time.
See him then the moment is gone,
Walking alone.
You find it hard to know what to say,
Though you feel the same.

I'm falling, far as I can go
And you, falling, nowhere left to go.
I'm falling, far as I can go
And you, you're falling away from the world,
It's been so long.

Oh what did you say to her, oh what did you say,
You're lying now it's over, oh it's over.
Oh what did you sacrifice, oh what did you say,
You're lying now it's over, oh it's over.
Oh there's nowhere, nowhere to go.
