

You Remind Me Of Gold

The Human League

Baby, when I think about you
And that's when I think
I think about gold
(You remind me of gold)
And when I see the sunrise in the sky
And when I hear your brakes come squealing by
I forget
(Everything I've been told)

(You remind me of gold
You remind me of gold
You remind me of gold)

Baby, I always think about you
I think of the life and glory you hold
(You remind me of gold)
And even though there was no sun today
And though you are a thousand miles away
(You remind me of gold)

(You remind me of gold
You remind me of gold
You remind me of gold)

(You remind me of gold
You remind me of gold
You remind me of gold
You remind me of gold
You remind me of gold
You remind me of gold).
