

Little Things

The Icarus Account

i watched you walk away today, i wonder if you thought to stay.

remember when we stayed up watched the sunrise as it came up, painting all the brilliant colors, we had it all we were the greatest lovers.

now i'm away from you,
but i won't forget
the little things you do.

i found the note that you left for me, so i open it up, and start to read it says, "dear love, i miss you, i hope you know i won't forget you even if we're worlds away, i'll always be your girl and that will stay"

all of my love is for you, i won't forget
the little things you do.

remember when we stayed up,
watched the sunrise as it came up,
painting all the brilliant skies, i had it all when you were by my side.

i miss you
and all the little things that you do.
