

Only One

The Icarus Account

I take my first breath then steps one and two
Forget the small talk girl I'm needing you
'Cause it's the first time
I've ever felt alive before in all my life

You make my heart go crazy skipping beats
And oh you look so good it's killing me
And light the fire and fuel the flame

Without you girl I'm not the same
So I'll take every breath and take it slow

Will you be my only one
Will you be my only one
Will you be my only one
Will you be my only one

Papapapa doo doo do
Papapapa doo doo do do dooo

Take the fall and take it hard
It's safe to say you've won my heart
All you are is all I need
So take my hand and come with me love.

I'll take every breath and take it slow

Will you be my only one
Will you be my only one
Will you be my only one
Will you be my only one

I've gotta find a way to get to you
I've gotta find a way to get
You are the only one for me you are the only one
If I can't have you then I will have no one at all
No one, at all.

Will you be my only one
Will you be my only one

Will you be my only one
Will you be my only one

If I can't have you then I will have no one at all
No one, at all.
