

Symphony

The Icarus Account

And all at once the stars begin to sing
Across this silent symphony
Go if you must just go
But always know that I'm here for you
I'm here for you
Just stay right next to me
So that I can hear you sing
So loud and clear
So come and hold me close and so
Near to you
Near to you
Near to you
Just stay next to me
Just stay next to me
Just go if you must
But always know that I'm here
I'm here
For you
