As The Dragonfly Flies

The Icicle Works

As the dragonfly flies, as the flowers rise As the sleeping streets of azure bend the fool As the willow weeps, as the lizard peeps Down tepid streams with dreams of passing through

You are what you are You are what you are You are what you are You are what you are

As the hope expires, as the land conspires As the lily-pads drift softly through a night In the musty halls, where invention calls With the voice of indecision filling fright

You are what you are You are what you are You are what you are You are what you are

Watch it, feel it, hold me, thrill me Give it, take it, as the dragonfly flies

You are what you are You are what you are You are what you are You are what you are
