

Drama of our time

The Idoru

drama, more tragic than ever. bullets are loaded, waiting to destroy every precious work of art,
that creative hands and minds ever made.
"positive" power hates the "negative", plus against minus, man against humanity.
collective apathy is sitting on closed minds, closed eyes.
carelessness ate itself into the hearts on success' behalf.
the bridge of deep empathy has exploded.
true mirrors are crashed in the name of progress, deformed char acters moving in living silence.
"positive" hunts for "negative", try to kill what can't be kill ed,
that undestroyable energy. it wants to be the savior killer,
the victims of murder will be the all time winners !
