Check Out Your Mind

The Impressions

Here's something that you never had It slid in on an oily rag The price is right up on the tag I'll put in a brand new bag This thing will let you be yourself And won't offend nobody else Nothing like you ever saw Why don't you check out your mind Been with you all the time People thinking they've been took Just finding out they over looked They never found the missing link Forgot they got a mind to think Why don't you check out your mind Been with you all the time Check out your mind Check out your mind Check out your mind Trust in me and I in you No matter what you see me do I'm doing me for all I'm worth None do be better on this earth Why don't you check out your mind Been with you all the time Why don't you check out your mind Been with you all the time Why don't you check out your mind Been with you all the time Check out your mind Check out your mind Check out your mind Check out your mind Check out your mind
