

L.a.

The Inchtbokatables

When I see you standing
I don't know what you want of mine
'cause you are not interested in me
Or interested in my life

I could ask you this moment
What is going in your minds
And the lights are ashining so bright
The lights are shining so bright

I'm looking into your faces
But I can't find one at all
And you are waiting infront of stage
And you won't realize what I call

And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now

And here it doesn't matter
That you are dancing infront of stage
I know you have paid your entry at all
Of 5 marks or 10 marks or 15

And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now

Please don't tell me about your own
Please don't listen to me
I couldn't give you an answer
Why we are living and playing and living

And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now

And I try to explain to you
What's happening in our souls
(Two incomprehensible lines)

And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now
And it's shining, shining now
