

Mountain Man

The Inchtaborables

Mountain man, man with a bell
Dancing like a fool between heaven and
Hell
He sings like a child
He runs out of breath
One side is life and the other is death

You're making a step you're losing your Shoes
You get afraid you're not able to move
Hear his echo of laughter
Where you pick up a tear
There's no time to lose
There is no time for fear

Follow your steps just try for your best
For sometimes you move and sometimes
You rest
Dance on the rocks hear the ring - a
Tingling
As mountain continues to sing
