The Inchtabokatables

Once in this old bar I set alone on my chair
And I had another drink and I've looked into your eyes
And I've looked into your eyes that seemed to be like stars
Just like stars

Later in this bar we had together our last drink
Then we went to your flat to make love
To make love

Sleeping sleeping now

Now in this old bar I'm alone again on my chair
'cause you left me next day, 'cause you left me next day
And I'm looking for your eyes, looking for your eyes
That seemed to be like stars
Just like stars

Please give me my drink, 'cause it's the only way I know
To forget your eyes are stars
To forget your eyes are stars

Sleeping sleeping now
