

I'm writing you to Catch you up on places I've been
And you held this letter
Probably got excited, but there's nothing else inside it

Didn't have a camera by my side this time
Hoping I would see the world through both my eyes
Maybe I will tell you all about it when I'm
In the mood to lose my way with words

Today skies are painted
Colors of a cowboys cliché
And strange how clouds
That look like mountains in the sky are next to mountains anywa y

Didn't have a camera by my side this time
Hoping I would see the world through both my eyes
Maybe I will tell you all about it when I'm in the mood to lose my way
But let me say

You should have seen that sunrise with your own eyes
It brought me back to life
You'll be with me the next time I go outside
No more 3x5's

Today I finally overcame
Tryin to fit the world inside a picture frame Maybe I will tell you all about it when I'm in the mood to Lose my way but let me say

You should have seen that sunrise with your own eyes
It brought me back to life
You'll be with me the next time I go outside
Just no more
