

North American Field Song

The Innocence Mission

Raincoats. Finlandia.
Raincoats and lakes.
The best words, I take along
in my field bag.
Across the morning, the beautiful air,
I will be aware.
I'll speak if I dare,
and stay calm,
stay calm, stay calm,
stay calm in the meantime,
stay calm,
stay calm, stay calm,
through the red and the green light,
stay calm.

No one can be so embarrassed as me,
I say to these trees,
where I walk with my head down.
Across the morning, the beautiful air,
I will be aware
my Father is there
and stay calm
