North American Field Song

The Innocence Mission

Raincoats. Finlandia.
Raincoats and lakes.
The best words, I take along in my field bag.
Across the morning, the beautiful air, I will be aware.
I'll speak if I dare, and stay calm, stay calm.

No one can be so embarrassed as me,
I say to these trees,
where I walk with my head down.
Across the morning, the beautiful air,
I will be aware
my Father is there and stay calm
