

Soundtrack To A Revolution

The Insyderz

No longer will I just sit back as this world's slowly dying
I'm not done having fun, I'm no good at goodbye
Today's the day we can't delay, we fight to save those that hate
The time is right, we can't deny the voice inside to rise above

Chorus:

This is a call to arms, prepare for war
This is a battle charge, prepare for war
We'll still hold the fort, prepare for war
This is a call to arms

No one is safe, they're all asleep and the darkness creeps in
No longer will I be the one that this world marks for failure
Today's the day we can't delay, we fight to save those that hate
The time is right, we can't deny the voice inside to rise above

Chorus

This is a call to arms, prepare for war
This is a battle charge, prepare for war
We'll still hold the fort, prepare for war
This is a call to arms
This is a call to arms

Chorus 2x
