Who Is This

The Insyderz

Who is this that appears Like the dawn? Fairer than the moon, brighter than the sun You're the Lover of my soul Draw me unto You Draw me unto You Who is this that beckons me To come close Beauty beyond words surrounds me when You're near You're the Lover of my soul Draw me unto You Draw me unto You We will run, we will fly We will be together We will laugh, we will cry We will be together Who is this that wipes the tears From my eyes Just one glimpse of You steals my heart away You're the Lover of my soul Draw me unto You Draw me unto You
