Splish! Splash! Sploo!

The Irrepressibles

Splish, splash, sploo How the rain falls through There's an aching pain From a darkened room

Take my hand Take my whole life too Oh, 'cause I can't help What I do to you

Aah, aah, aah

You, your game is the same As who had the same game too Is the same as you

Aah, aah, aah

And you put it away And you put it away And you put it off And you put it away
