

When I Step Threw The Door

The Jacka

Catch me in a H3 same place the grapes be same place they laced me in a cold war boy cant escape to safety the first time I squeezed a trigga cause a nigga made me second time I was out my mind man gotta prove I'm set outside on the grind even though its rainin think about back in the day to the AM niggas wanna be me sprayin niggaz like grafitti niggas send they guanas on the move cause they scared to meet me the game ain't fair yeah I used to let it cheat me but never beat me remember willy mack and young zeeky?
James and dog yeah they still wit me That's why I roll with Fed Ex and Hosalazzi flights all over the world I pay for everybody been havin Ks in the house since I stayed with mommy kicked out the house found a kick in the couch starin at the world through my rearview thinkin bout what I've been through yeah you know, just a lot of shit man..lotta clappin nigga (murda niggaz)

When I step through the door hoes blow me kisses even though a nigga cold off the surp and the prup nigga barely holdin on go to war without a army I make it on my own bare face, head bussa even though I'm well known black nigga with a black trigga creepin through your home boy.

I was a kid the first time my shit was felt people don't feel u nigga so don't kid yourself I'm off top with this shit like a Ay bitch set me up, I'm late as shit on the real only treal niggaz play this shit I'm ill at raps like I made the shit every day I wonder where the fuckin went I'm purped out had enough of the same shit windows up tacked out on the main strip don't trip on the jacka you'll be mad at yourself I call the strap a ham sandwich cause it's bad for your health you iced out but foreal under heat you'll melt

The world is mine like scarface picture got the 40 stock nigga leave a large space in ya I'm in space off the killa 26 inch whella Amir and Young Jay I was fenced up with 'em locked down for a year spread nothin but millions trade war stories leavin lead stuck in niggaz 30 rounds out he window like fuck you nigga u gettin robbed cause you know you put your trust in bitches I'm a prob fixin to get in the extortion business learn from it I'm a animal that eats with a full stomach doin a 100 can't take it back after I done it that's the gangsta shit all my niggas come with (feel me) rich over night but I'm still me
