

Skywriter

The Jackson 5

Skywriter
Sweep your silver pen,
Across the sky so high

Skywriter
Won't you write the biggest
I love you
Cross the sky

She don't read the letters
I write anymore
Sorry I upset her
But I wasn't sure
Now I know I love her
I hope that she will see
A message high above her
That you write for me, yeah.

Skywriter
Sweep your silver pen,
Across the sky so high

Hey hey
Send a box of candie
And flowers every day
Still she wouldn't listen
Her pride got in the way

Now it's up to you
It won't fade away
Write it on the heavens
Love will make it stay, yeah

Skywriter
Sweep your silver pen,
Across the sky so high
