

The Mirrors of My Mind

The Jackson 5

Slipping through hour glass of time
Fitting the mirrors of my mind

Traveling through the mirrors of my mind
I see reflections of a sweet love left behind
Kaleidoscopes of memories turning gray
Why do I hold on to yesterday?

Slipping through hour glass of time
Fitting in the mirrors of my mind

Reflecting of the mirrors of my mind
Questions that I've asked a million times
Why did it turn out this way?
Girl, why must we love always and yesterday?

I keep pretending, with memories never ending, ooh
I can't keep fooling myself

Slipping through hour glass of time

I keep pretending (7x)

Slipping through hour glass of time
Slipping through hour glass of time

I keep pretending, with memories never ending, ooh
Slipping through hour glass of time
I keep pretending, with memories never ending, ooh

I keep pretending, with memories never ending, ooh
Slipping through hour glass of time
I keep pretending, with memories never ending, ooh
