

True Love Can Be Beautiful

The Jackson 5

True love can be beautiful

Searching
Been looking everywhere
Soon ill find you, girl
I know im getting closer now
Cant wait to hold you, girl

The day I find you, girl, youll love me

Hey, girl
When youre in my arms youll want to keep for me
Im sure
Cause my loves that strong youll be too weak to leave me

The day I find you, girl, youll love me

Each day I try harder
With faith and confidence
I know ill get you

True love can be beautiful but it takes time
True love can be beautiful but it takes time

So close
I can still feel your heartbeat but youre not here
But my searching is all over now that youre growing near

Today I finally found you, girl, and you love me

Youre here in my arms
Where youll stay today
Always...
Always...

True love can be beautiful but it takes time
True love can be beautiful but it takes time

Today I found you, girl
You love me

True love can be beautiful but it takes time
True love can be beautiful but it takes time
