

We've Only Started

The Jam

It's like the middle of age
I feel the space between us all
A forced expense, but the big divide
Between the devil and the deep blue sea

Let's take a chance with beginner's luck
We have nothing so there's nothing to lose
I can't believe the only reasons we're here
Are the reasons in the Bank of England

Hear me now, we've only started
They'll just exploit us but it's only day one
We haven't got that far
Not far at all
