

Never Gonna Let You Go

The JaneDear Girls

You say my name like a secret no one knows
How strange the way two can share one soul

I'm never gonna let you go
I'm never let you walk away
There's not an inch of me that you don't know
I'm never gonna let you go, let you go

Even the sun can't light my darkest day
Like you see right through the makeup on my face

I'm never gonna let you go
I'm never gonna let you walk away
There's not an inch of me that you don't know
I'm never gonna let you go, let you go

Lying here next to me you pretend to sleep
You close your eyes
Should I wake you?
Should I take the chance to say what's really on my mind?

I'm never gonna let you go
I'm never gonna let you walk away
There's not an inch of me that you don't know
I'm never let you go let you go

I'm never let you go, let you go, let you go
I can't let you go
