

I'm Still Dreaming, Now I'm Yours

The Jayhawks

before the first light
hits the floor
dying on some wind
so afraid of losing you

so I may change
there's no one there
tell you how to live not knowing where you been

I'm still dreaming, now I'm yours
I'm still dreaming, now I'm yours

woke up that same way so easy for me
listen to the sunrise do I know you better now

I'm still dreaming, now I'm yours ...
