

Pouring Rain At Dawn

The Jayhawks

Baby, close the door
The only one you know
The footsteps you keep
Wondering on and on
Pouring rain at dawn

Set yourself at ease
You're always on my mind
Close the door
I'd close the door to that song
I chose my way to fall

I don't wanna be ungrateful
I don't wanna be unfaithful
I just wanna be the one you want
I can't turn back the hands of time
But if I could I'd make you mine
I was always so in love with you

Landed on my knees
The rose you gave to me
Healing comes to those
Who are the most in need
The ones you're looking for

Say before I go
This is all I know
The reasons why I can't rely on
All this time
It only goes so slow

I don't wanna be ungrateful
I don't wanna be unfaithful
I just wanna be the one you want
I can't turn back the hands of time
But if I could I'd make you mine
I was always so in love with you

Never should be breaking your heart again
Never should be breaking your heart again

Baby, close the door
The only one you know
The footsteps you keep
Wondering on and on
Pouring rain at dawn

Pouring rain at dawn
Pouring rain at dawn
