

Betterman

The John Butler Trio

So betterman I am since
I, I've come into contact with you
And you taught so many things about myself
And you know this is true

But now we are apart and it's all my fault
'Cause you know I need to be alone
Don't know myself, so why can I share me
With you girl or anyone?

Don't want to be a thorn in your side, good woman
Always be the one to make you cry
Don't wanna be that guy, good woman
'Cause you are beautiful

Now typical man, I am because you think
I want my cake and eat it too
'Cause say I can't be in a relationship
But I still feel for you

'Cause you are the best woman
This old man has ever met
You taught me about my soul
You shared with me your magic

Don't want to be a thorn in your side, good woman
Always be the one to make you cry
Don't wanna be that guy, good woman
'Cause you deserve everything

And I got nothin' so leave me
Yeah, and I'll go away better off I stay
Far from you, you, you, you, you
'Cause you are beautiful

Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful woman
Yes, you are a beautiful, beautiful, beautiful woman
