

Don't Wanna See Your Face

The John Butler Trio

BOOM yeah
Back on the scene
Where ya look good by being mean
Yeah friend for another round
Bringing you up while laying it down
Damn! like jumping into the ring
Just a sing but it ain't nothing
Yeah man, foe or friend
do you got ink or venom in your pen cos

You think I love you
You think I need you
Damn no get out the door
Don't wanna see your face no more

Man now watch that toe
I ain't a step ladder man I don't think so
Whoa boy what ya trying to do
Are you writing a column or jumping the queue?
Queue yes to your favourite scene
Not the Q to the R to the S to the T to the U
Man between you and I
You don't know your truth from your lies no

You think I love you
You think I need you
Damn no get out the door
Don't wanna see your face no more

Take a look tell me what you aim
Tell me why you're in this game
There's a better use for your pen
Than criticising others for doing their thing
Maybe then, maybe then you'll see
You can't cage something that's free
Anyway cut to the chase
I don't wanna see your face no more
