

Steal It

The John Butler Trio

You got your mask on, it's only your cold eyes I see.
No, you did not break or enter but when you're leaving you take everything.
You're loot is packed and ready the kids are buckled in and weep,
And now I'm curled up in this empty shell where our home it used to be.

So tell me why'd you steal it all from me
why'd you steal it all from me girl
why'd you steal it all from me
why'd you steal it all from me girl

You opened up my windows
I gave you every key to every lock.
An yes you opened 'em up one by one Got to the end and you stepped on my heart.
You were wearing gloves when we first met
I shoulda known you were staking me out, Yes I thought your love came freely and now I'm paying and there is now doubt.

Because way up, way up in the sky
I don't want to fall from this deftly height
Why can't we make up, wake up tell me why
Why can't we just hold on to what we made together
I thought we'd never sever girl, instead...

You go steal it all from me
Steal it all from me girl
Why'd you steal it all from me
Steal it all from me girl, steal it all from me
Why'd you steal it all from me girl
Why'd you steal it all from me
Why'd you steal it all from me girl.
