

Turn Against Me

The Jokerr

(Ha Ha Hahaha)

This song, goes out to a special someone
You know you and me, we really could of [']
Well, probably not

[Verse 1: The Jokerr]

Now theres been a little discourse
With the sound of my voice so here I go
I'll part with the crowd and smooth it on down
Then sing as so
Now I'm quit reminiscent of another cheap gimmick
Oh yes I know
But if you give your mind and a moment of your time
I sure will show

(Its more than!)

Its more than the battle I'm waging
More than the gimmick in the story on the pages
Its twenty-six years that the whole world
And telling you your doing it wrong, Oh
Its life through the bars of a cage
And the mind of a man so far from his age
With a heart full of gold that he only meant to show to the world

[Hook]

So, Why'd you turn against me'
(We could of had so much fun)
Why'd you turn against me'
Why'd you turn against me'
(After all we've done)
Why'd you turn against me'
Why'd you turn against me'
(We could of done so much)
Why'd you turn against me'
(With what once was)

[Verse 2: The Jokerr]

Tell the most beautiful people in the world
One time there wrong
They'll only reach out to you that one time
And then there gone
Oh, I'm not here to make friends anymore
It's been too long
Now you'll feast your eyes upon your own reflection

(Its more than, its more than, its more)

Its more than the battle I'm waging
More than the gimmick in the story on the pages
Its twenty-six years that the whole world
And telling you your doing it wrong, Oh
Its difficult to see right now
But wait for the encore after the bow
Theres a whole other story
Wheres theres love and theres glory to be told
OoOhHhH

[Hook]

Your young Aithens gone away
(Away, away, away)
(My young, my young)
Your young Aithens gone away
(Away, away, away)
(My young, my young)
Your young Aithens gone away
(Away, away, away)
(My young, my young)
Your young Aithens gone away
(Away, away, away)
