

This Is Your Life

The Juliana Theory

Baby, you say, "this is your life, well where is mine?"
how you gonna get there running nowhere? burn yourself out.
die too soon. you see the world is only temporary.
everybody's scared that they'll be no one too.

baby, baby, baby, you say this is your life,
well where is mine?
baby, baby, baby, you say this is your life,
well where is mine?

how you gonna hold out when you sold out?
life's a riddle. here's a clue.
you see, a moment's only temporary.
let too many go, and you will be history too.
"why?" you ask me. "why?" i'll tell you.
"why?" i will tell you. you gave up baby.

baby, baby, baby, you say this is your life,
well where is mine?
baby, baby, baby, you say this is your life,
well where is mine?
