

Neck Of The Woods

The Kentucky Headhunters

Well somebody said they saw you
At the Moose Lodge last night
Throwin' down drinks
And droppin' my name

You were fresh off the bus from Knoxville
And those big city lights
If they didn't warn you
Let me inform you
Things ain't quite the same

Well, I know this used to be your stompin' ground
I can't count the times that my old heart
Felt your high-heel shoe come down

I found a girl up in True Love Holler
She treats me good
She don't want a' your cheatin' arms
Back around my neck of the woods

Well, I know I used to love youv Back in my foolish days
You done me wrong
There's one thing you did right

Well, my new baby knows about you
And all your evil ways
You better get outta' town
On the next Greyhound
Before she gets you in her sights

Well, I know this used to be your stompin' ground
I can't count the times that my old heart
Felt your high-heel shoe come down

I found a girl up in True Love Holler
She treats me good
She don't want a' your cheatin' arms
Back around my neck of the woods

No, she don't want a' your cheatin' arms
Back around my neck of the woods
Yeah, yeah, yeah-ah - Woo
No, she don't want a' your cheatin' arms
Back around my neck of the woods
