You're really getting close to me so far so close to me so point me to a yes, no, yes, no, yes don't tell me maybe

You think you're there to hold my hair to come and drag me home you think you're gonna dress me up from head to toe and then I'll go?

Well I'm a hard, hard habit to break I'm a hard hard, hard habit to break

Your mind's playing tricks on me you got me where you want me I'm going left, right, left, right, left, right through the city

And I can't get enough of the heat and I don't shake it off in a beat you gotta fix me up or let me go and I'll quit it

It's a hard, hard habit to break
a hard, hard habit to break

Always talking about change What change, what change? Maybe when the lights fade Maybe it's my mistake Maybe it's your mistake Maybe it's our mistake

What change? What change?
