

Hum for Your Buzz

The Kills

Will you call on me
if I turn my back on you fall into the river
just keep on swimming

I'm looking for answers to my wishes and my prayers you missed most of the words when I said them

I am a believer
right on the brink of thinking I can not be so easily
brought to my knees
so baby, you need to...

Row your boat
a little bit faster now or turn around and I'll be a stranger in the crowd

I'm a believer now but I ain't thinking straight and I ain't gonna wait for the sun to set, one more mile

I am a believer
right on the brink of thinking
I can not be so easily
brought to my knees
so baby...

Go for broke
or lay lay yourself down on the road
let hell pay your way
as you sit there and smoke drink and daydream

I'm a vision you looked for so long, at your door sweetheart my ears are ringing ring ringing
like my mind is gone

I am a believer
but the receiver is off
just sat on the floor
the hum and the buzz
I can't take it no more
