Sitting by the Riverside

The Kinks

Just sitting down by the riverside, Spreading my arms to the open wide. Now I am free and the world's at my feet. I can close my eyes.

Oh Love, keep me warm, keep me satisfied. Please keep me calm, keep me pacified. Now I'm content and my life is complete. I can close my eyes.

Sitting by the riverside with you.

I love sitting down by the riverside, Watching the water go flowing by. Oh, golly gee, it is heaven to be Like a willow tree.

Spend my time just drinking wine while looking at the view.
