

Somebody's Out There Watching

The Kinleys

Some kind of peace of mind that they can call their own
Everybody needs love
Just a little trust
'Cause sometimes eatin', sleepin', breathin' just ain't enough
As long as the truth is on the table
As long as there's kindness down the line
Like the little babies in the cradle
We'll be fine

CHORUS:

'Cause I believe
Somebody's out there watchin'
Somebody's out there watchin'
I believe
Somebody's out there watchin'
Somebody's out there watchin'
Over me
Dreams, everybody needs dreams
All the joy and happiness that the good life brings
Everybody needs freedom
Everybody needs touch
Somewhere to lay their heads when it gets to be too much
Got enough time to last forever
Got enough faith to get us home
We're never gonna die and go to heaven all alone

CHORUS

Hidden from us in the sky above us
I can feel it all around
Hard to seem 'em
But I do believe that there are angels a-lookin' down
Yeah, I believe...
Somebody's out there watchin'...
